

My Two Homes

Children of Divorce
Group

Who: Children ages 6-9

Why: To help process the changes that children go through when their parents divorce.

What children will learn from this group:

- how to assert yourself and set healthy boundaries with your parents
- how to express your feelings about the divorce
- dealing with divorce is a process that takes time
- you are not alone and your feelings are normal

When: Tuesday nights 5:00-6:00 pm, starting February 16 2010

Where: 706 Front St., Suite 1, Louisville CO 80027

Cost: 6 week class is $300, sibling discount

Facilitator: Monica Ramunda, MA, LPC, RPT is a Licensed Professional Counselor and registered play therapist in private practice in Louisville. She is a Marriage and Family therapist, specializing in children and adolescents and a Child and Family Investigator for the courts. She has been working with children and families for over 10 years.

Please call for additional information regarding group times and location.

Call Monica at 720 304-7611.