

DIVORCE MEDIATION SEMINAR: THE HOW-TO'S
Robin N. Amadei, Trainer

For mediators who have had a 40 hour basic mediation training and want to add divorce mediation to their practice or to improve skills in divorce mediation

Objectives of this workshop include:

1. Identify process adaptations that a mediator might use when mediating divorce cases
2. Review issues typically covered in divorce mediation
3. Review the court processes applicable to divorce
4. Delve into the specific elements of the parenting plan and separation agreement (the agreements that mediators help parties negotiate)
5. Review the basics of divorce law in Colorado and how the law applies to mediation
6. Explore screening for domestic violence
7. Discuss how to deal with the psychological elements of divorce and the strong emotions that might arise in divorce mediation
8. Discuss the impact of divorce on children and developmental stages
9. Discuss how to enter the field of divorce mediation

This seminar will consist of discussions, exercises and coached role plays.
