

Dear IDC Members,

The 2011-2012 year of programming at the IDC begins in just under a month. Take a look at the enclosed program schedule and see what we are offering! Mark your calendars now for the February 3, 2011 all day conference- details will be provided soon. The Board is enthusiastic as we move into the 2011-2012 year. We are happy to be able to offer another year of top notch presenters and topics.

Ongoing changes in legislation, policies and judicial directives make clear the importance of the IDC. It brings us all together every month in a forum that provides professionals support and knowledge to help each other meet these challenges.

Many of you have enjoyed several years of the IDC. I look forward to your return and encourage each of you to reach out to members of our professional community to make sure new professionals are aware of this organization and its benefits.

One of the hidden gems of the IDC is the Case Conference held each month in both Longmont and Boulder. At a Case Conference, a mental health professional and attorney are available to confidentially discuss cases and to brainstorm ideas on how to better handle the situation or simply reassure you that you're doing everything right! Many members have reported that the Conferences are a big help to address difficult issues that arise ever-so-often in our caseload. Recently, a member reported that "Going to the Case Conference allowed me to look at my case from a completely different perspective and see a glaring issue I was otherwise missing." I challenge each member to attend at least one Case Conference this year. It is truly amazing what you learn from your peers and can offer those who are struggling with issues in a particular case.

The Case Conferences are held as follows:

Boulder Case Conference: Hosted by Daryl James (attorney) and Jennifer Norton (mental health professional) on the 4th Wednesday of each month at the office of Daryl James, James Kirsh Inness-Brown & Ware, LLC, 3775 Iris Ave., #5, Boulder, CO 80301.

Longmont Case Conference: Hosted by Shirley Thomas (mental health professional) on the 2nd Thursday of each month at the office of Shirley Thomas, 630 Kimbark St., Longmont, CO 80501.

Please remember to fill out the enclosed application with the annual dues soon so that you are listed in this year's directory and can take advantage of the membership rate for the monthly lunch programs. Thank you for your continued support of the IDC.

Sincerely,

Todd Stahly

Todd Stahly, Attorney at Law
